

Ramanujan's Lost Crossword

All-Day Sprint
College of Charleston Math Meet 2009

All the words in this crossword are spelled using only the letters A, J, M, N, R, and U. Clues indicate which numbered space the word begins in and which of the six possible directions it extends. A winner will be selected from the maximally correct submissions. Good luck!

1 famous Indian mathematician

11 when is a door not a door?

21 I think, therefore I ...

1 Indian king

12 jogged

22 er...

2 pirate exclamation

13 ... and aleg

23 ... Loa

3 the Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King

14 cuprum et argentum et ...

24 capital of Jordan

4 Magdalena

15 e pluribus ...

25 ... and Dada

5 might have a habit

15 contains ashes

26 short for 1, 2, 3, ...

6 security council

16 ... and Mrs.

27 famous don

7 super

17 indistinct speech

28 how to become president

8 four gigabytes

18 ancient city

29 Cu & Ag & ...

9 colorful halo

18 fix a copier

30 follows 10

10 scuff

19 traffic

31 Raggedy

10 μ

19 27's sister

32 ... Cl

11 a year to Cæsar

20 Hawaiian lava

33 Yoyo

Use the clues on the reverse side to complete this slantwise crossword puzzle using only the letters in the name "RAMANUJAN".

If no team gets all of the entries correct, then a winner will be selected from among the maximally correct answers.

Each school turns in one answer form. Put your school's form in the box in front of Maybank Hall by 2PM.

